TEXAS HOME SCHOOL COALITION PAC
Keeping Texas Families Free™

Derek V. Baker is a dedicated conservative in the race for McKinney City Council At-Large. After graduating from Liberty University with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science, Religion, and Business, Derek was a conservative activist for 25 years. Derek served on many boards and worked on several campaigns in various political offices. He is currently a licensed realtor with Keller Williams in McKinney. Derek and Melissa, his wife of 16 years, home school their three children. He is eager to continue serving the citizens of McKinney.

Texas Home School Coalition PAC Chairman Tim Lambert announced the PAC's support of Derek Baker for McKinney City Council At-Large. Chairman Lambert said: "Derek is a bold, consistent conservative leader. He is a true advocate for parental rights and home schooling, and we need him on the McKinney City Council. Derek will fight for our liberty and I proudly endorse him for McKinney City Council."